

Dear Jersey officers

Morris Town
Monday Eve 81

I have the disagreeable news to inform you by the Mouth of Maj: Vlyter that the Pennsylvania Soldiers have Risen and got the Artillery in their Possession and making the best of their way to Eliz: Town it is supposed and the Militia is turning out on every Quarter this is therefore to inform you the intention of the Soldiers Please to act you Pleasure upon the occasion hope there will be no time lost in quelling these fellows Capt: Talbot with several other officers is killed in trying to stop them &c. This from Sir Yours in haste and Remains your affectionate

The Commanding officer of Jersey Troops

Jaacob Arnold

Carol Arnold
1781

The Residence
of Miss
Mary
Ann
Arnold

42